Last call for Alport public telephone box?

BT has announced plans to remove the red public phone box at the foot of Alport Hill, one of only two public payphones left in the parish.

Describing it as a measure to “realign payphone provision to meet consumer demand”, BT points out that calls from payphones have more than halved in the last three years and that 60% of them no longer cover their costs. The payphone at Alport is one of 16 in the Derbyshire Dales that are earmarked for closure.

However, Youlgrave Parish Council, Harthill Parish Meeting Chairman Peter Pimm and District Councillor Andrew McCloy have all signalled their opposition to the proposal, saying that despite the increased ownership of mobile phones the public phone box is still useful for the large numbers of visitors to and through Alport. They also claim that its allegedly low level of use is partly due to BT making it a card-only phone, when a cash phone would almost certainly result in more calls.

Under Ofcom directions, BT is obliged to consult the local community for its views when a phone box is to be removed. To make yours known contact the Parish Council, Parish Meeting or District Councillor. Alternatively, write to BT Payphones, PP 05A23, Delta Point, Wellesley Road, Croydon, CR9 2YZ or email btp.authorisation.team@bt.com, identifying the phone box as 1PCO, Alport, Bakewell DE45 1LG. Consultation ends on 6 September.

A few years ago the traditional red telephone box at the bottom of Stoneyside was permanently removed, leaving just the one remaining box at the top of Holywell Lane in Youlgrave.

(TRANSATLANTIC) BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Readers may remember a lively quartet of American visitors who embraced village life with verve and enthusiasm during their all-too-short stay at Fountain Cottage. There was Rose Marie, in search of the perfect wedding dress, her friends Donna and Dorothy and Travis, the photographer.

Last year, Donna – the one from Georgia with the wavy chestnut hair who was nearly co-opted on to the Bulls Head darts team – was married, becoming Mrs Davenport on a Tennessee mountain top. Now, how romantic is that?

On 27 February this year, she gave birth to Ian Connor, weighing in at a healthy 7lbs 4oz. All her friends in Youlgrave send their congratulations and best wishes to the new family.

- ARE YOU WORRIED ABOUT LARGE HEATING BILLS?
- DO YOU WANT TO HELP FIGHT CLIMATE CHANGE?

A small group of us in Middleton, supporters of Sustainable Youlgrave, have decided that we are not prepared to carry on paying high heating bills and with huge increases forecast this winter for oil, gas and electricity, we have decided to take action. We are forming a group to collectively buy oil and thereby negotiate a discount in price. To join this group contact Mike Edwards on 636687 or email rqyme@tiscali.co.uk

We are exploring the possibility of collectively buying the following to negotiate a good discount:

- loft insulation (should be 10 1/2in thick and can reduce your heating bill by a third, average cost of £200, free for over 70s, grants available)
- ground source heat pumps taking heat from the ground to heat your home. For every unit of electricity used to pump the heat, 3-4 units of heat are produced. Can heat your home to a maximum of 60 degrees. Average cost £8,000-12,000.
- solar panels to heat your hot water. Average cost £3,000-5,000.
- biomass boilers, self-loading boilers using wood chip or pellets. Average cost £5,000-14,000.

These renewable energy installations are not cheap, but will knock hundreds of pounds off your fuel bills. With fuel bills soaring the payback time is getting shorter. Grants are available.

For more information go to the Energy Saving Trust's website at www.energysavingtrust.org.uk/ or freephone 0800 512 012. Alternatively, visit the Energy Advice Centre, Market Place, Buxton (next to the Town Hall) open Mon-Fri, 9am to 5pm. They offer free, independent and impartial advice.

If you are interested in exploring the possibility of installing any of the above through a collective discounted purchase contact Sue Watmore on 636338 or email s.watmore@waitrose.com.

WI Report

Mrs J. Easton, President, welcomed several Ladies to the June meeting. After the usual singing of Jerusalem she dealt with the month's correspondence. She then gave dates to look forward to during the summer.

Firstly, on 28 June, the Carnival Day, the WI are having a stall on the recreation ground and look forward to meeting the visitors, hoping for a sunny afternoon. In August, an afternoon tea has been arranged on Peak Rail. Always thoroughly enjoyed. In September, we are planning an outing to the National Memorial Arboretum.

Mr Gordon Coupe, our guest speaker, then gave a very interesting talk about Youlgrave from about the 17th century. He said it was mentioned in the Domesday Book. Lead mining was the main industry in the very early days, also quarrying was very popular with mines scattered all around. Also, there was a bobbin factory in the village and lace-making became popular. Eventually the boundaries were altered and more land was taken over by farming and still today there are farms dotted around.

He then showed many old photographs, showing how many old houses, etc, have been lost. Members who had lived the district for many years were most interested.

The next meeting is on 8 July when the talk is entitled 'The Health Issue'.

All Ladies are most welcome.

Another well-dressed success for Youlgrave

Having just returned from the Youlgrave Well Dressers' annual party, which traditionally follows Well Dressing week, I thought it was time to reflect on what I believe has been one of the best years ever for the tap dressings.

Firstly, this year's designs have been an absolute triumph, with innovative techniques and textures, and superlative use of colour, combining to give a bumper year for Pommie's wells.

Of course, the designers are supported by a whole host of people who help to translate their creations into reality and this year it seems that the village really responded to our calls to come and get involved. I don't think I have ever seen so many people at puddling on Monday evening. As ever, the children had a great time and some of the clay even got on the boards! This year we decided that the work of the children should be recognised and both the Guides' board and the School's well dressing were included in the official photographs. The level of generous support from all ages continued throughout the week and it was great to see so many involved.

So I think we should be rightly proud of our success in providing Derbyshire's best-dressed wells. I only wish that our celebration of the gift of water was not quite so readily translated into precipitation! However, despite the bad weather we managed to raise around £1,300.

THE BUGLE team now take their well-earned summer break (look out for them careering off down the A6 waving their buckets and spades). Suitably refreshed and hopefully a little sun-kissed, they will resume the serious business of reporting all the Pommie news that's fit to print at the beginning of September. Contributions should reach us by 24 August – contact details on page 19. Happy hols!

The well dressings by Youlgrave's children and young people were again widely admired: 1st Youlgrave Guides (above) and Youlgrave School (below).

Awards for Youlgrave D of E youngsters

On 26 June, nine young people from Youlgrave's Duke of Edinburgh Award Unit were presented with awards at a County presentation ceremony in Matlock.

Five of these were the first from the group to complete the Silver award, with the other four gaining their Bronze. These young people had to undertake three activities under each of the following headings: skill, physical pursuits and service. They chose a variety of activities from climbing, dancing and football, video-making, Youth Theatre and cookery, to helping with Youlgrave Music Festival, Brownies and at Youlgrave School.

The Bronze group have learnt navigation skills and camp craft, which led to two expeditions taking place. They had to walk 15 miles over two days, carrying all their own equipment and were totally self sufficient. At the end of their assessed expedition each group presented a project, which was completed during and after this.

The Silver group extended their skills, participated in a practice expedition in the Dark Peak followed by a three-day expedition in the Yorkshire Dales. They walked 30 miles, again carrying all their equipment.

We hear so much 'bad press' about young people, but this group have shown us that a lot of them have talent and commitment – we should be proud to have them living amongst us.

The Carnival comes home

After a gap of almost a decade, Pommie Carnival returned with a bang at the end of last month. A week-long series of well-attended games and events for all the family culminated in a hugely successful Carnival Day on the playing fields: stalls, rides, floats, tents, parades – there was something for everyone, and it was fantastic to see so many local people out enjoying themselves.

The organisers want to say a big 'thank you' to everyone who helped, in so many ways, to make the event such a roaring success.

However, the fact that there was so much on was due to the hard-working Carnival Committee themselves, who in just 13 weeks put it all together: Sarah Hill, Julie Bacon, Emma Wardle, Jayne Andrews, Jessica Roper, Joanne Healey, Mick Partridge and Mark Shearing. Well done to all of them!

Middleton by Youlgrave wind turbine approved

News that the area's first wind turbine has been approved by the Peak District National Park has been welcomed by Sustainable Youlgrave.

At a meeting last month, the Authority's planning committee granted permission for a 20 kW Gazelle machine at Mount Pleasant farm in Middleton by Youlgrave.

The turbine will be about 60 feet high and will stand near the existing buildings. It will provide about 80% of the energy used by the estate and is part of the estate's wider renewable energy and energy-saving package. This also includes insulation, an air heat pump, sustainable woodland management for wood fuel, as well as home-grown food.

The application was supported by the Friends of the Peak District and Sustainable Youlgrave. There was only one local objector. During the planning meeting, a committee member said the proposed turbine was "gracefully designed and sensitively sited". Similar sentiments were echoed by several committee members.

However, the application was initially recommended for refusal by planning officers. Sustainable Youlgrave pointed out that the officer's report failed to adequately recognise the benefits of the wind turbine, including an omission of the global green policies that have been adopted nationally. The group said that the report heavily exaggerated the visual impact and visibility, contrary to the officers' own landscape architect's report, which wasn't explained at the meeting.

After a site visit earlier in the day and debate at the meeting, the officer's recommendation of refusal was rejected by planning committee members who instead approved it, 9 votes to 3.

John Youatt, Chair of Sustainable Youlgrave and a retired planner of many years experience, said that it was time that such machines were recognised more widely as objects of grace and desire, not treated as eyesores. "A broad cross-section of the UK public accepts well-designed wind turbines in their own right," he claimed. "The particular proposal was well conceived, an excellent example of the mixture of energy efficiency and new carbon-free energy that almost everyone advocates."

He also said that further sites will be discussed as part of Sustainable Youlgrave's proposed community-owned green energy company's ambitions.

Ladies Section celebrates 85 years

The Ladies Section of the Royal British Legion marked its 85th anniversary with a well-attended group meeting in Youlgrave last month. Members from around the county joined Youlgrave ladies at the village hall. In addition to a specially-prepared cake (pictured above) made by Jean Stacey, the audience enjoyed a musical performance by John and Lillian Clark and friends from Matlock Golf Club.

Reminiscences of Midsummer Day

This account of Midsummer Day celebrations in the village was written by the late Lily Wragg. Thank you to John Marple for supplying it.

Midsummer Day – what magic in these words, as we look back almost 70 years!

Only those who have been born and bred in this village can fully realise the meaning of Midsummer Day in Youlgrave. So much to do and see: tap dressing, band playing, club walking and the final attraction – the cricket field and the Hurdy Gurdies!

A whole year bound up in a day – Midsummer Day. What eager hands and feet rushing about for moss and flowers, climbing the hillside, knocking at the doors. “Please, have you got any red daisies?” “Please have you got any pinks?” And so on.

And how we asked each other: “Which tap are you helping?” The one, of course, your father helped to dress. And the taps! Top Tap, Bank Tap, Frank Evans Tap, The Cross Tap and the Bottom Tap. What a thrill when we were allowed to stick in the Indian corn on the border!

So to bed the previous night, tired out but with dreams of a marvellous day on the morrow – Midsummer Day – confident 'Our Tap' would get the first prize.

The day arrived. What a busy morning. Second best clothes to get out, shoes out of their boxes from under the bed and the little drawer in the bedroom unlocked, from which a tissue paper parcel was taken – 'The Club Sash'. How we gathered round to look at the lovely green sash worn by members of the Foresters Club, and after many instructions, not to mess our clothes (they were our second best), not to climb walls, etc, we went to see the Club Walk.

Auction of goods at 4pm – not to be missed!

What a thrill! The Changing of the Guard at Buckingham Palace could have given no bigger thrill. The band in their uniforms, the lovely banner of the Foresters Club, then the men in their bright green sashes, with their little fingers clasped as they walked in twos. There was one special figure in the procession, my father in that lovely green sash – mustn't miss him! Service in Church followed the procession and dinner in the huge tent. What a dinner! How they sang its praises. To us children it was a Royal Feast just to hear about it. Procession again after tea, then – a very important occasion for us children – meeting Aunts, Uncles and Cousins, because this meant so many relations, so many pennies for the Hurdy Gurdies. We were rich on Midsummer Day, if it only amounted to sixpence and very often went home not having spent up. How we looked at those pennies, one of the three days in the year we had money of our own. A birthday penny, a bright penny in our stocking at Christmas, and a Midsummer Day penny!

After all, our pleasure on the cricket field was not in spending all our pennies but rather in seeing all the things: Coconut Stall, Aunt Sally, Try Your Weight, Shooting Gallery – not spending a penny to win a pound but getting real enjoyment for our penny.

Lily Wragg was born in 1897 in Youlgrave. Her father was Enos Yates Wragg, a quarry labourer, who married Thursday Garratt. They had 8 children and Lily was the sixth child. Lily Wragg lived in the house between the Post Office and Thimble Hall. She was Housekeeper to Miss Wheeler, the French Teacher at Lady Manners School.

Thank you to Mary Walker for this biographical information.

And so, tired out but happy, we wended our way home. It didn't matter if Our Tap hadn't won the first prize.

A year today we would be dressing it again and we might win first prize then. It would be Midsummer Day.

SUSTAINABLE YOULGRAVE REFLECTS ON BUSY YEAR

Sustainable Youlgrave (SY) held its second AGM in the Reading Room last month. About 25 people attended. Chairman John Youatt thanked members and sponsors for the work and money that made the campaign possible. SY has at least 90 email-registered supporters. Thanks also to all the organisations that have supported us with grants totalling £27,000. In particular, he recorded Jeni Edward's contribution as Treasurer and for her organisational work. We welcomed John Orchard as our new treasurer and new committee members Mike Edwards and Suzanne Pheasey to share representation of Middleton.

Summary of the year

SY commissioned pre-feasibility studies into wind energy and anaerobic digestion. Nine local farmers are interested in an anaerobic digester. We're working on a prospective sustainable woodfuel project and we support a mini-hydro project at Alport. Individuals in the valley have installed, or asked for permission to install, a wind turbine, an air heat pump, a ground heat pump and solar panels. We have tried to reach all residents in the valley. The percentage response has been higher than some similar projects we know of. SY is an active partner in the emerging Parish Plan, since there are common projects such as lift and car sharing. Future plans include our determination to set up a 'community owned green energy company' which, if successful, would be partnered by a community trust to spend a proportion of any profits generated. This would complete the work of the current voluntary association. The annual report and technical appendices are available by email from the address below.

Energy saving

The AGM concluded with a presentation by Shona Thomas of the Notts & Derbys Energy Efficiency Advice Centre. She explained the many ways in which energy can be saved and the role of the energy partnership. Among the useful gadgets she brought along was a 'Powerdown', which automatically switches off your computer and all its peripherals, plus a device to tell you how much power your property is using and which appliances use the most. Sustainable Youlgrave is planning to purchase a couple of these devices and loan them out free of charge to local people who want to check or reduce their domestic energy consumption.

Jokes of the month

What do you call a pig with three eyes?
A piiig.

What's brown, sticky and found in the countryside?
A stick.

A horse walks into a bar.
The barman says: "Why the long face?"

THE CROW AND THE RABBIT

A crow was sitting on a tree, doing nothing all day. A small rabbit saw the crow, and asked him, "Can I also sit like you and do nothing all day long?" The crow answered: "Sure, why not."

So, the rabbit sat on the ground below the crow, and rested. All of a sudden, a fox appeared, jumped on the rabbit and ate it.

The moral of the story: To be sitting and doing nothing, you must be sitting very, very high up.
