Waterworks honours long-serving member

Don Bateman was a member of Youlgrave Waterworks for 51 years until his retirement recently. He joined the Waterworks in August 1960 and served on the board continuously from that date.

Last month Don was presented with a commemorative framed picture by the chairman of Youlgrave Waterworks, Harry Holland, at Bagshaw Hall in Bakewell, where Don and his sister now live with his nephew. The wording on the picture is as follows:

Presented to Don Bateman, for 51 years service to the waterworks, with gratitude from the people of Youlgrave.

We should also remember that Don is Youlgrave's last traditional blacksmith. His early years were spent at the smithy in Barnes Lane, and later at the forge at Middleton, and then until his retirement as a blacksmith at DSF Refractories. If anyone can be described as the 'salt of the earth' it is Don Bateman. MS

Happy couple

Pictured right: Ellen Johnson of Sheldon House, Main Street, Youlgrave, was married to Alistair Pullar of Ashford-in-the-Water on Saturday 5 May at Youlgrave Wesleyan Reform Chapel, with the reception afterwards at the Red Lion/Peak Hotel at Stonedge by Rowsley Moor.

The couple, on return from honeymoon, will be living in Darley Dale. Ellen is a nurse, currently working at Bakewell Hospital, and Alistair is in the Army, presently based in Bedfordshire.

Ellen and Alistair would like to thank local people for the many kind wishes, and especially thank Stuart and Isabelle at the Chapel for a fine service and Mr and Mrs Toyne for their help with the parking.

Dear Editor

I was so pleased to read Ian Weatherley speaking up for dandelions (Wildlife Notes, April Bugle). I think they are a wonderful splash of colour after a bleak winter for humans as well as bees.

A few years ago we decided to stop mowing our lawn to let it become a meadow. A wild lawn is far more interesting than a plain green, regimented and clipped lawn. In the first year we were rewarded by a bullfinch regularly feeding on the seeds from grass stems.

Dear Editor

In 1985, Auf Wiedersehen Pet was filmed around Youlgrave. I am looking for any behind-the-scenes pictures, or candid shots any residents may have, of when the show was filmed in the local area. I know Jimmy Nail and Tim Spall were two of the shows characters to be featured in scenes filmed in your area. Next year is the 30th anniversary of Auf Wiedersehen Pet first hitting our screens, and I am trying to get together a comprehensive collection of rare pictures and information. If you have anything you could contribute to my website www.auf-pet.com/ please contact me. Thanks.

News from Youlgrave Bee Group

Still alive: After all the dire reports on the news, you may be wondering about our Youlgrave Bees. We are happy to report that all four hives came through the winter and at mid-May are still well and active, although not producing honey yet because of the weather we have all been enduring – they've been too busy just staying alive. We hope that will all change soon

Come and see for yourself: As the season gets going we would like to invite anyone interested to come and observe a hive inspection – weather permitting. We meet up at the car park allotments at 6pm on a Tuesday evening. We have spare protective clothing for visitors but can only handle one or at most two at a time. Please contact our Secretary, Judith Orchard, if you would like to come (phone 630202).

Join the Group: If you are still keen to learn more, the Group is always open to new members. There are training courses run by the Beekeeping Association in the winter, so a summer's practice would give you a good feel if you want to take it further. As a spin-off from our group there are now more bee hives in Over Haddon, Matlock, Elton and Longnor, as well as Youlgrave. It's an absorbing past-time! We still need everyone to plant the right sort of plants to feed the bees – see our website – so there's something everyone in the village can do to support the growing bee population. Saving the world may start with one happy hive full of bees?

Swarms of Bees: And finally, if you have a swarm of bees in your garden please contact the Group – either Judith (number above) or Jeni Edwards on 636550.

"Thank you for the party!"

A heart-felt thank you to all who made Big Bob's 60th birthday party such a success on 12th May. Linda and Sharon at The Bull's Head did everything possible to help, ably assisted by Scott, and put on an amazing spread, Charlie and her team did sterling work on the bar, Eileen Lowe made a magnificent cake complete with tractors, a Landrover and an edible toolkit, Billy Eden and the lovely Pauline provided the best music in the Peak and the guests provided the company, the dazzling-ish wit and repartee, some truly memorable (but possibly best forgotten) dancing and lots of wonderful, generous but unasked for cards and gifts. THANK YOU ALL! Bob & Dee Frith

Top marks for Jane – the customers' choice

Jane Plummer works for Trent Barton out of the Matlock Depot and has been there for seven years. She operates the 'Sixes' route from Bakewell through to Derby via Wirksworth, Middleton and other villages. By all accounts she is one of the company's most popular and conscientious drivers – and now she's been recognised by a prestigious award.

Throughout her driving career, Youlgrave-based Jane is always ready with a big smile and a friendly greeting, always has a chat with her regular passenger asking about their health and their families, and is known for her infamous mince pies which are put on the front of her bus for her passengers to have at Christmas time! Jane will remember her passengers' birthdays and anniversaries, and has a card and bunch of flowers or chocolates for them. She has been known to take passengers to their destinations in her own car if the bus is out of service or very late, and will take a get well card and bunch of flowers to any regular passengers she finds out are ill or have had an accident.

Trent Barton hold an annual driver award ceremony in Nottingham and Jane was invited to attend this year. The event was hosted by Ricky Tomlinson and Jane won the 'Customers Choice Award' which is presented to the driver that has had most passenger nominations throughout the previous year, and is then audited by an independent body to ensure fairness.

Jane lives with her husband on Stoneyside, Youlgrave, having moved from Tideswell four years ago. She has been a bus driver for over 33 years, following her Grandfather who was a driver on the old Sheffield Corporation Transport. Her Dad told her: "You're a girl, you'll never drive a bus!" Red rags and bulls come to mind, so she became a conductor and then went on to driving the buses. Jane has had a varied career, not just on local bus services but also on coach work, taking coach tours all over Europe for a number of years, finally hanging up her 'Tachographs' about 15 years ago.

Congratulations on the award, Jane – richly deserved!

Youlgrave-Bangbutt Village Link Table Top sale – back by popular demand!

Because last year's Table Top Sale Trail was so successful and popular we are planning another this year. It will take place on Sunday 8 July from 10am to 3pm, with sale points all around the village.

Shortly we shall be putting a leaflet through every door outlining what you need to do if you want to be a stall holder. If, on the other hand, you want to buy from the stalls, just give us £1 per adult on the day and we'll give you a detailed plan of the trail plus a sticker that will be your permit to purchase. We shall also be selling refreshments in the Village Hall throughout the day.

Proceeds from the Sale Trail will go towards funding health projects for pregnant women and babies in Sierra Leone, where mother and infant death rates are the worst in the world. Last year, working with the British charity Health Poverty Action and using funds raised from the Sale Trail, we were able to finance the training of Maternal Health Promoters who work in some of Sierra Leone's most deprived and remote regions helping women through their pregnancies and with child care. We could not have done this without your tremendous support. Out of every 1,000 babies born in Sierra Leone as many as 165 die.

Together, on 8 July, we can do something about this.

What can a Community Land Trust do for us?

The Youlgrave Village Plan, agreed in 2009 after widespread consultation, places a high priority on maintaining a vibrant, working village through community regeneration schemes and the provision of affordable housing. So in order to generate funds to implement the plan, the Youlgrave Village Plan Group proposes to set up a community land trust. This is a legally incorporated body through which we can seek and distribute grant funding and also own land and property for the benefit of the community in perpetuity.

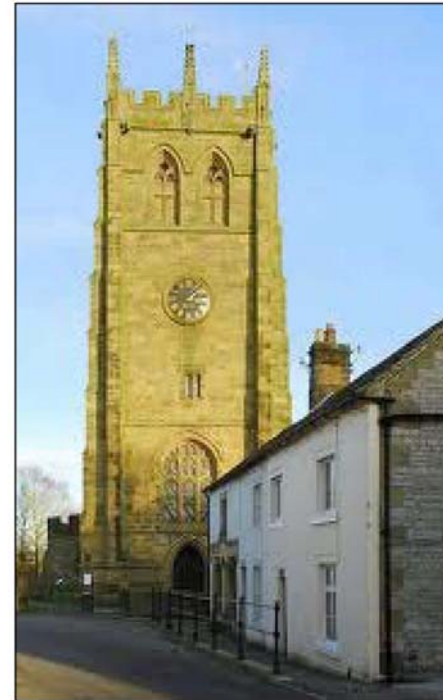

It will be run by a Board elected by all members of the community who support its aims and want to join. It will be 'not-for-profit' - so any surplus it makes will be ploughed back into other community projects. In the future such a Trust might run community buildings, support community projects and look after other community-owned assets. In the long-term it could, for example, maintain the post office or local shops, like in Winster, where the community now owns and runs the village shop and has saved the post office from closure.

So come to the meeting on Thursday 14 June 14 in the Village Hall and hear about how the Trust will work. Steve Watson from Devon CLT will be making a presentation about the benefits of such a project. I hope you will be able to come and support the idea and find out more about this exciting initiative for Youlgrave.

Here are some of the projects that the Youlgrave Community Land Trust could undertake:

- Secure land for the community orchard
- Secure the long-term future of local shops and post office
- Build affordable housing
- Sponsor renewable energy projects like anaerobic digestion
- Guarantee the future of Bankside Wildlife Garden
- Manage community buildings

If you are unable to attend the meeting and would like more information please contact: Cllr David Frederickson 01629 636586 or mail@davidfrederickson.com

Pots, playwrights and pampering

At the end of April, at our monthly Thursday Supper Club event, several ladies 'went potty' and enjoyed a talk and demonstration before being let loose on their own designs on pottery of their own choice. The final results after firing were brilliant.

Our May W.I. meeting was held at Stanton-in-Peak where the W.I. treated us to a lovely spread as always. Sixteen of us went to hear the W.I.'s chosen Resolution – the severe shortage of midwives – and this and the impending exodus of retiring midwives was informatively explained and discussed at length. Following this, a trio of visiting playwrights from Chesterfield's Pomegranate Theatre treated the audience to readings and sketches, from a Prisoner of War Diary to a comical debate on custard creams, and appropriately, a sketch on the improbability of allowing men into the world of W.I.!

We still run 'Craft and Chat' sessions on some Monday afternoons, but please look out for posters or telephone us for dates.

On Thursday 31 May we have a walking Treasure Hunt, followed by supper at The Bull's Head. Please phone for details if you can join us. The next W.I. monthly meeting is on Tuesday 12 June at 7.30 in the Village Hall, when we have a special free open evening to welcome any interested ladies who would like to give us a try. There will be lovely refreshments on offer, including various delicious puds, and wine will be available. The speaker will be providing a make-up demonstration, so we may, literally, see a few 'new' faces!

Our June Supper Club, again open to anyone, will be, by popular request, another Beetle Drive at The Reading Room, on Thursday 28 June followed by cheese and biscuits, with BYO drinks as usual. We have many exciting evenings planned for the future – fancy a bit of curling? Watch this space or come along to a Tuesday meeting for a taste of what is on offer!

There will be much to report next month, as we also have the Jubilee Village Picnic coming up on Sunday 3 June when we shall be assisting with providing refreshments, and we'd love to see you there. For any further information please ring Lucy on 01629 630315 or 07880 541734.

TALENT SHOW: Youlgrave Guides and Brownies combined to take part in a Guides Talent Show heat, along with other girls from across our area. The Brownies looked fantastic as they danced to ABBA music, dressed in wonderfully colourful t-shirts which they had tie-dyed themselves. The Guides sang beautifully in harmony – a song called 'Home is Where the Heart is'. Natasha Clarke and Isabel Lovell also sang a duet. Youlgrave had by far the best turn out and we were delighted when Youlgrave Guides were chosen to represent the Peaks and Dales Area at the County Talent show. PM

Saturday 14 July 2012

Youlgrave Carnival Committee would like to say a big thank you to the new members who have been to the last few meetings – your support and ideas are greatly appreciated.

We are still in need of people who are able to give us their time by joining the committee, attend meetings or give their help on Carnival day or the week leading up to Carnival day.

Even if its just new ideas and suggestions for events.

If you are able to help marshal on Carnival day or would like to hold a stall or game, or even just advertise your enterprise, then please let us know. We are also looking for raffle and tombola prizes. If you are need any more information please contact Leah on 077451 48993 or email us at youlgravecarnival@hotmail.com.

Baden-Powell Award for Youlgrave Guides

On Thursday 17 May we were delighted to welcome our County, Area and District Commissioners to Youlgrave Guides. The reason for their visit was to present seven girls with their Baden-Powell Challenge Award. Jennifer Bristow, Camilla Clark, Hannah Corran, Olivia Hourly, Alice Marsden, Kate Worthington and Alice Yarwood have all worked incredibly hard to gain the highest award a Guide can achieve.

To gain the Baden-Powell Award Guides have to complete ten clauses, including a range of activities such as building and sleeping in a bivouac, running evenings for the unit which have ranged from international to sports and relaxation evenings. They also took part in water activity weekends and international trips, and to complete their awards the girls had to attend a Challenge Weekend along with Guides from other units.

The girls have been with Youlgrave Guides for about six years and have contributed significantly since then, joining in with regular meetings, events and camps. They have a great sense of humour and fun, whilst becoming great leaders and an example to the younger guides. The unit and leaders are extremely proud of them and their achievements.

Youlgrave Guides and the Backpack project

For the volunteering section of their Duke of Edinburgh Award, Rosie Elliott and Megan Percival – along with Youlgrave Guides – are taking part in Mary's Meals Backpack Project. This aims to provide children in countries such as Liberia and Malawi with basic school items and clothes suitable for children to wear to school. Very often families cannot afford to buy these things, so a simple backpack with educational materials can help children attend school and receive an education.

We are trying to fill 50 backpacks, so we would be grateful for any items anyone can donate. Here is a list of items we are collecting: backpack or schoolbag, exercise book, pens and pencils, crayons, eraser, pencil sharpeners, rulers, toothbrushes and toothpaste, soap, flannels and clothing suitable for school (secondhand is fine).

If anyone has any items to donate, please hand them to any of the Guides or ring Penny McCloy on 636125.

Youlgrave Wildlife Notes: May 2012

The summer birds have now arrived and I am grateful to Joy Frost for an excellent list of arrivals in the Conksbury Lane/ Raper Lane area. She recorded a chiffchaff on 22 March, blackcap and two swallows on 12 April, a willow warbler on 17 April, swallows over her house and a blackcap singing in the garden on 20 April. She also noted curlews, probably heading for the Greenfields area, and a sparrowhawk catching and completely stripping a collared dove in the garden. There was a very travel-worn redstart at the top of Moor Lane on 29 April. This attractive summer visitor is like a back to front robin with the orange on its rump. I have seen several since, on the pastures above the village.

On 5 May there were swallows, house martins and swifts flying over the Dale and two buzzards soaring over Mawstone. The martins seemed to have arrived after the swifts this year. On the 6th there were male and female orange tip butterflies in the garden and, in spite of the low temperatures, there was a cloud of small insects in the lee of a cherry tree, no doubt providing some much needed food for the swallows etc.

On the 7th I walked down into the Dale. My very slow re-ascent up to Brookleton produced some very nice flowers on the bank. There was white meadow saxifrage, blue germander speedwell and buttercup. This is not the creeping buttercup so beloved of gardeners but the bulbous buttercup, one of our special limestone pasture plants. You can tell it from the other buttercups by the sepals that bend back to touch the stem under the flower. The walls on Brookleton had blue ivy leafed toadflax, tiny white rue-leafed saxifrage and two pretty little ferns, wall rue and maidenhair spleenwort, all making the most of the aging pointing. These plants are common on similar walls around the village. I also saw two long tailed tits in the garden.

My eco (i.e. neglected) lawn has been bright with violets and the dandelions have done their best for the bees. My common spotted orchid that thrived on neglect last year has again started to grow and I think there may be two of them this year. It will be some time before it flowers though.

On the 8th I again ventured into the Dale and saw two orange tip butterflies engaged in a butterfly dog-fight, a blackcap singing at the bottom of Valpo gardens and, best of all, an adult dipper feeding a young one. Unfortunately I only saw one chick and one adult. I haven't recorded garden warbler yet. Good places for these are by Raper Bridge or the old mill at the bottom of Roughwood Hollow.

People ask how I can tell birds by their songs. Quite simple – I cheat! I have all the British bird songs on my i-Pod. There are plenty of websites or CDs that can be downloaded and listened to in the field. Please keep those observations coming in and thanks to all contributors.

NEWS FROM BANKSIDE WILDLIFE GARDEN

Exciting new projects for ALL!

We now have an infra-red motion sensitive camera set up in the garden to capture any wildlife night time activity. Once we think we have enough of interest to share, we will have a viewing afternoon or evening. We also have a bat detector which will be available for anyone to borrow. It has a chart so that it's possible to identify different bats by their sound frequencies. An evening in the Wildlife Garden or along the Dale should prove very interesting!

We have added magnifying glasses and some bug viewing containers to the other objects of interest in the summer house. Some of you are already using the whiteboard to record what you have seen in the garden. The younger visitors are very familiar with the fishing nets and have recently discovered newts, tadpoles and dragonfly larvae. We are also very pleased with the addition of a sundial to the garden – so no need to bring a watch or mobile to see how long you can enjoy the summer delights of Bankside!

Do come down to the garden on Saturday 10 June from 10am and help create a willow 'Hide' with the wonderful Carole Beavis. Pictured left is what it will (hopefully!) look like. If you plan to come, and it's a family-friendly event for all ages, it would be useful if you could let Maggie know on 636189.

Come and help create a willow hide in the Garden on Saturday 10 June.
