New book celebrates River Bradford

A River in Time: The Story of a Peak District River is the title of a newly-published book all about the River Bradford. It explores the geology, heritage and natural history of the river, as well as the important role that water has played in the lives of the people of Alport, Middleton and Youlgrave.

The book features interviews with local residents, including accounts of what the river and the dale were like many years ago. But it also looks at how environmental issues are affecting the flow and life cycle of the Bradford.

The book was inspired by the Bradford River Action Group, which was formed by a group of local people who wanted to better understand the problems of inconsistent flow and how we should respond to the increasing incidents of drought and flood.

A River in Time was researched and written by local writer and photographer Christine Gregory, who for over 20 years lived in Youlgrave. Her previous title was a high acclaimed study of Derbyshire's brown hares.

Production of the book about the River Bradford was made possible by a grant from the Peak District National Park Authority; and profits from its sales will be distributed via a locally-administered fund that will seek to aid river- or water-related conservation work in the River Bradford locality. More details on this will be announced in due course.

A River in Time costs £15.99 and is published by Grafika of Bakewell. Copies are available locally from Youlgrave Post Office, Bakewell Bookshop and the Peak National Park Visitor Centre; or it can be ordered on-line via www.riverintime.org.uk.

Leah's charity obstacle run

Dear Bugle Readers,

I would like to thank everyone for their support and sponsors for the 10K obstacle run I completed on 8 September at Brailsford to raise money for Motor Neurone Disease Association. It was a lovely sunny day, great for getting muddy and soaked to the skin in trails, ponds, rivers and clay pits and over 60 other obstacles! I completed the 10k in 1hr 57minutes 32 seconds, which meant I came 991 out of 1504 people (314 out of 624 women!) - see photo right.

I am still receiving donations but my total so far is £1,288.10. I will be contacting the MND fund raising team in the next couple of weeks when I have collected all the monies and I am sure, like me, they will be very happy with the grand total.

Many thanks again to everyone.

Sheffield City Hall Concerts: Dates for Youlgrave concert-goers' diaries

October 2013 – May 2014

We have a programme of four concerts. The selection has been influenced by our wish not to coincide with the village cinema, but as several concerts are on a Friday this season, one concert does. As usual, we have avoided concerts during the mid-winter.

Saturday 19th October

Saturday 15th March

The Halle, conductor Karl-Heinz Steffens: Wagner, Bruch, (Violin Concerto No.1), Mendelssohn (Symphony No.3 'Scottish').

Friday 9th May

Moscow Philharmonic, conductor Yuri Botnari: Tchaikovsky, Shostakovich, (Cello Concerto No.1), Rimsky-Korsakov (Sheherazade).

Sunday 25th May

The Halle, conductor Sir Mark Elder: Bernstein, Copland, Ginastera, Gershwin.

We buy the tickets in advance, and for the first concerts we will buy ten tickets, hoping the response will be such that we are able to go back to buying 15 as last season.

As usual, we will be giving more detailed information on each concert well before each date. The pick up points for all concerts will be the telephone box at the top of Holywell Lane and outside the George Hotel. It would be appreciated if you would tell us in advance if you would like tickets for any particular concert. Concert and coach cost is £27.

We do invite you to join us on these concert trips and look forward to hearing from you, and seeing you during the coming months.

Frank Donald Bateman (1924-2013)

I felt very proud and humble when I was asked to speak at Don's funeral. I first knew Don in the mid 1960s when I started to come to Youlgre' (as Don pronounced it) and I was greeted with a big smile and a very strong handshake. As the time passed and I got to know Don I realised how well liked he was and how he was respected by his neighbours and his friends.

I had the pleasure to have Don as a work mate when I started work at DFS. Here again he was held in high regard, both as a talented metal worker and a trusted work mate.

Donald was a great asset to any organisation. He was connected with not least the Village Hall, assisting with the maintenance and making scenery and props for the many productions and also front of house.

One activity that some of you won't associate Don with is travel, but along with some old friends from Sheffield Don travelled through quite a lot of Europe. Now although he didn't speak any other language than his native Pommy, winner, conner, munner, shunner, he didn't let that trouble him. I suppose that big beaming smile and his friendly manner worked just as well with foreigners as it did with his Pommy mates. Whilst he was abroad he was known to have jumped on a local bus returning later with some packages and a haircut. It remains a mystery as to whether he wanted the haircut or not.

In his later years he never stopped working and helping his friends and family. He could be seen gardening at David's home and offices, along with his close friend Fred and sometimes Margaret. They were given the name of the 'Ground Force', Margaret being Charlie Dimmock.

Don was never happier than when he was in his beloved shed, repairing or making some of his many useful and much sought-after gadgets. Don was equally at home working with wood as he was with metal. I spent some happy times, as did my son Richard and I'm sure many others, watching him skilfully fashioning presents and useful articles from his store of wood and steel. When Don moved down to Bakewell to live I offered to move his lathe, tools, etc, to a new shed, where he intended to do some work, but because of his health that never came about. But when I finished Don offered his still strong hand and thanked me and gave me a spirit level, which I treasure very much; and it reminds me of a wonderful dear friend when I use it – dependable, truthful, strong and uncomplicated.

Don's world was one of strength, kindness, honesty, loyalty and totally uncomplicated. Anyone who had Don as a friend should feel honoured and humble, as I know I do. Thank you Don, God Bless.

Youlgrave Wildlife Notes: September 2013

Although there are a few plants such as the yellow dandelion-like perennial sow thistle still giving some colour to the grass verges, it is the fruits and seeds produced by the prolific flowering earlier in the year that are giving the botanical interest. The rowans are heavily laden with their bright orange berries and, so far, seem to be ignored by the birds. Usually the rowans in our garden are barely ripe before the blackbirds have them, but this year there seems to be so much other food about that they are lasting much longer. This should ensure plenty of food for our winter visitors, such as fieldfares and redwings, but it should be remembered that we also get large immigrations of birds that we think of as residents, such as blackbirds.

The ash keys on the tree on the Wildlife Area were so abundant that they weighed some lower branches down to the ground which made mowing round them a bit awkward. The Indian summer we have been enjoying has kept the butterflies active and we have had red admirals and small tortoiseshells in the garden in the last few days; and I had a report of a painted lady down Brookleton. The peacocks are already moving into the church tower, hibernating clinging to the walls of the staircase leading to the ringing chamber.

It is always easier to record first sightings of birds for the year than last sightings. I was sent some lovely photos of mainly house martins covering the roofs of caravans at Lower Greenfields on 8 September and they disappeared soon afterwards. However this was not the end as there were both swallows and house martins in some numbers over the village on the 13th and I had a report of some on the 22nd. They do seem to have all departed now, though there's always the chance of a passing straggler for a while yet. On 29 August we had a greater spotted woodpecker trying to make holes in the telegraph pole by our front gate. On 6 September I was standing by the window and thought a sparrow hawk was going to join me in the dining room. Fortunately it turned away just before hitting the window.

Other bird reports were a kingfisher near Alport Bridge on the 24th, a whole family of jays visiting a garden at Coldwell End and three buzzards slowly soaring down the Dale. After a distinct lack of interest in the bird feeders for some time the small birds such as goldfinches, greenfinches, chaffinches, sparrows and tits are once again trying to eat me out of house and home. Small birds generally seem to have had a successful breeding season and I will include more detailed reports of nest box use in next month's article. My thanks to all contributors. Sightings of winter visitors much appreciated and please keep your reports coming in.

Roald Dahl's Dahlicious Dress-up Day at All

On Friday 27 September all the pupils and staff came to school dressed as their favourite Roald Dahl character. Characters included Maltida, Miss Honey, Danny, The Witches, Mr Twit, George, Mr Willy Wonka, Mr Fox, Alfie the tortoise and Miss Trunchball (also known as Mrs Trainor!) who loathes pigtailed. Any child with pigtailed was carefully avoiding Miss Trunchball throughout the day in case they happened to be swung through the air by their pigtailed!

After a playground parade, where all the children and staff paraded their costumes, the rest of the day was filled with lots of fun Roald Dahl activities.

The Dahlicious Dress Up Day raised £50.45 which has been sent to Roald Dahl's Marvellous Children's Charity which exists to make seriously ill and disabled children's lives better.

Parish Council awarded grants to develop new village website and all-weather sports area

Youlgrave Parish Council's meeting on 24 September was marked by two important success stories. County Councillor Simon Spencer presented a cheque to enable the creation of the new village website; and the meeting was informed that SITA's QEII Fields Fund had awarded us £25,000 towards the Multi Use Games Area which is to be sited on one of our two tennis courts and marked out for basketball, five-a-side football and tennis. There will be more about both these important developments and how local residents can get involved in future issues of the Bugle.

Cllr Spencer stayed on at the meeting to join the discussions with a representative from Bankside on our three years of frustration trying to get Bankside regularly cleared of vegetation. Owing to it being classed as a Public Highway it requires Derbyshire County Council approved operatives to clear. But they sub-contract to Derbyshire Dales District Council who have not been carrying out this work as they have it logged as a road that tractors can get along. The handrail repair has also been on the County's 'to do' list since June 2011. Cllr Spencer promised to chase this up and the Parish Council will ask the District Councillor to do likewise.

The grit bin survey has been completed and Council will install 12 bins around the village (six being provided by Derbyshire County Council). It will also enter into a contract with a local supplier to refill these. We would be pleased to know if parishioners wish to take part in a scheme to supply cheap bags of salt to households? Youlgrave Garage has kindly offered to store a stock on our behalf for residents to purchase.

Cllr Simon Spencer from Derbyshire County Council presents the Parish Council with a cheque for £400 towards the development of a new village website.

A proposal by younger parishioners for a track with ramps for bikes was met with enthusiasm by Council, but with our commitment to complete the Multi Use Games Area project this year we will need to consider at our November Budget meeting how to fund this and are exploring the costs involved.

Fund raising continues for the village defibrillator – hopefully enough monies will be raised to provide two and Council will be writing to local businesses for support shortly. A decision on their location will be made once funds are pledged.

The next meeting is on Tuesday 22 October at 7.15pm in the Committee Room.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD 2013

Yes, it's nearly shoebox time again! For those of you new to the Project, shoeboxes covered with Christmas paper are filled with all kinds of goodies and then sent to needy children, mainly in Eastern Europe, and to those especially affected by war, disaster, and poverty. What happens to the shoeboxes is shown quite dramatically on a DVD or a video. If anyone would like to borrow one they are on the table just inside the church with the leaflets explaining all about the Project. It is important to read the leaflet carefully, as it lists suitable items to go in the boxes and more importantly, things we are NOT allowed to send. Please make sure you collect a leaflet so you can stick the label in the leaflet on to the box, giving the age and sex of the child (this is very important) and then please put an elastic band round the box. If you would like to visit the warehouse in Chesterfield, where the shoeboxes are collected, checked and sorted, please ring Barbara on 636601. The filled shoeboxes should be brought to All Saints Church on Sunday 17 November for 11am.

Church Farm Diary, October 2013

I am writing this in the sunshine on a wonderful warm day at the end of September.

After a little break in the weather, Dakin has started some more baling before the winter sets in. The field that was set with corn has been harvested and has now been ploughed and set down to grass.

We had a wonderful party to celebrate Dakin's birthday. Over 50 tractors came on the run and then we had burgers and cake and even an ice cream van (an old school friend of Dakin's). The day was sunny so it all took place outside, a day to remember. The sizable donations have gone to the Air Ambulance, since they do a great job and we never know when we might need them. They have helped in the area twice in the last six months. We have also celebrated Elizabeth's birthday, so it has been a month of cake-baking, all well worth the trouble as we have had some lovely times.

How I wish that I had written down the funny sayings that our children had said. Our youngest grand daughter, Milly, aged five years, has been learning about Hitler. When she came home from school this week and told her mum that Hitler had invented Polo sweets, Hannah then realised that Milly had been told that Hitler had invaded Poland!

I have not a lot to report on farming this month. Everything seems to be going to plan, the cattle have been brought down from the moor ground to graze before the winter.

Potato and Cheese Chicken

Ingredients

1tbs olive oil
9 oz cup mushrooms sliced
3oz bacon lardons
1 lb skinless chicken breasts cut into bite size pieces
Onion sliced or garlic
1oz plain flour
½ pint milk
3oz frozen peas or veg of your choice

For the Topping

1 medium-large potato about 12 oz
3 oz mature cheddar cheese grated

Method

Oven 180C, 160C fan
Heat the oil in a flame proof pan (I use a large frying pan with lid and then transfer to a casserole dish for the oven).
Fry the mushrooms, lardons and onion and chicken until the chicken is just cooked through.
Add the flour and cook for 1 min. Take the pan off the heat and gradually stir in the milk until the sauce has thickened then add the peas and seasoning.
Peel and coarsely grate the potato, taking small handfuls and squeezing out any liquid from the potato. (When I do a double amount I put the potato into a clean tea towel and squeeze it out.)
Once the potato has been squeezed add in the grated cheese, mix and scatter over the chicken mixture that has been poured into a ovenproof dish and cook for about 30mins until the topping is golden.

Last chance to keep Youlgrave Carnival going

Dear Bugle Readers,

The Carnival Committee has, without success, repeatedly asked for further support and ideas in order to continue with the Carnival. Unfortunately the lack of new members leaves us with no alternative, but to consider the demise of the carnival.

Without new members we cannot continue with the great number of responsibilities and pressures involved in organising the Carnival with just a few existing members.

The meeting held on 26 September was advertised in the last Bugle, but only two people showed any interest. Unfortunately this is not enough to help carry on for 2014. So a further meeting will be held on Thursday 17 October at 8.30pm at the Farmyard Inn – therefore this is a final request for new members with new ideas to come and join us on that date. The failure of any input from new members will result in Pommie Carnival 2014 being cancelled.

To help those who don't know the responsibilities, we require people to help/take charge of the following:

- Organising Stalls
- PR & Advertising
- Queens
- Food & Beverages
- Marquee & Portaloo hire
- Entertainment day and night
- Research other carnivals for new ideas
- Help set up for carnival
- Help clean up after carnival

Anyone is welcome to the meeting on 17 October at the Farmyard Inn - old/young, male/female.

As a committee we do not want to see the Carnival fold, but we now beg Youlgrave's residents to please help up keep our Carnival alive.

If you cannot attend the meeting but would like to join please email youlgravecarnival@hotmail.com or call 077451 48993.

We hope to see lots of new faces.

Regards,
Youlgrave Carnival Committee

Do you live on your own and feel the need for more company and support, but don't want a care home?

At Granby House you can be as independent as you want. You can eat meals cooked by the staff, go on the many social events and treat your en-suite room as you would your own home. All rooms are connected to an alarm system and help can be summoned at any time of day or night.

If more assistance is needed, home help can be arranged. Financial support is available in the same way as it is in a private house. The weekly costs can be surprisingly modest.

If you are interested in hearing more about Granby House, please ring Pat Cleaver on 01629 636836 or email granbyhouse@gmail.com.

For care that's wrapped around you.

Everyone has differing care needs. You can have as little or as much as you want – our homework is tailored around your needs.

You may just want

- A hand with cleaning, ironing and preparing meals
- Long term, short term or emergency care
- A little help and company whilst recovering from illness
- Assistance with getting up and going to bed, whatever the time
- Someone to go shopping with you or for you, or collect prescriptions
- A little companionship or someone to accompany you to appointments

Remember you don't have to change your routine just to make things easier for us. It's the other way around.

W.I. wraps up for winter

At our September meeting two local writers took us through A Journey in Words through the ages, from birth to old age, from Dickens to Gervase Phinn, with a wry look at every stage of Life. The competition for 'favourite book' was won by Gloria and Pam.

We also enjoyed a superb concert at Chatsworth Theatre with songs from Ivor Novello, and extracts from Fiddler on The Roof.

In our W.I. area, a Crafts Dabble Day is to be held, and further afield, a Cakes and Arrangements event. Already plans are being drawn up for our 13 December Carol Concert at All Saints Church, the Christmas Party and Supper Club event; and the 24 October Supper Club at the Reading Room has a Hallowe'en theme.

Book Club continues to thrive; and our next Craft Session is on 7 October, when the 9 November Coffee Morning and Sale will be discussed. Our October meeting at the Village Hall, on 8 October at 7.30pm will introduce us to the Alexander technique, so do come along if that interests you and meet our members - who will know that our competition is to bring your favourite shoes along! Liz Hickman

BANGBUTT HARVEST APPEAL 2013

Most people in Youlgrave know about the work Youlgrave-Bangbutt Village Link has done in the past in Bangbutt and the surrounding area. After the 10 year civil war we helped the community to rebuild their lives by building a school, a well and 21 latrines. We also started a goat herd and funded a tailoring course. We continue to have a link with the village and, this year, have given £530 to buy equipment for the school.

Over the last few years we have extended our support to other needy projects in Sierra Leone. This year we have sent a second £2,000 to Health, Poverty, Action (HPA) who are training Maternal Health Promoters (MHP) who work in rural areas helping women before, during and after giving birth. Hopefully this will help reduce the very high mortality rate of women and babies at this vulnerable time in their lives. We have a useful contact called Kadi (one of the TBAs) who writes to us and tells us about her work and her life. We have also donated £2,000 to the Aberdeen Fistula hospital which does amazing work by operating on women who have suffered internal damage during childbirth which has caused incontinence and meant that they have been ostracised by their communities.

Through our contact with Village Aid in Bakewell we have donated £2,000 to help fund a restaurant project at an orphanage in Mile 91. This will provide training and work for the orphans when they leave school, as well as providing funds for the orphanage.

We are also continuing our link with WaterAid. We co-funded a WASH (Water, Sanitation and Hygiene) project in one of the most remote areas of Sierra Leone near the Liberian border. When Barbara was in London recently she visited Rebecca, who has just come back from the area, for an update on the project. We are very impressed by the impact the work they are doing is having on peoples' lives.

We are so grateful for your support, both by annual donations and by spending money at our fund raising events. Our Barn Dance last November raised £702, the Breakfast Bistro continues to be very popular and raised £545. We had a coffee morning in April and an All Day Café in July. We are very grateful to the Wesleyan Reform who continue to support us with their Harvest Festival coffee morning and also to Gill and Brian who donate money from their regular tea gardens. Our next event is Sing Africa on 19th October which promises to be a very enjoyable evening.

There is still so much work to be done in Sierra Leone but we can only do it with your continued support. Annual donations help us to budget for the work we can do and don't forget if the donation is Gift Aided, we can claim back 25p for every pound donated, from the Tax-man!

At least we know that here in Youlgrave we are able to be linked with one small corner of the world, in Sierra Leone, and make a difference.

If you would like further information about our Harvest Appeal or to make a donation please contact Carol (636570), Glenys (636477) or Barbara (636601).

Youlgrave-Bangbutt Village Link

Our annual Harvest donations are due now and soon we will be sending out our request letters. If you are not on the list and would be willing to contribute annually to the worthwhile work in Sierra Leone, please contact Dianne Hewitt 636580, Glenys Moore 636477 or Barbara Scrivener 636601.

Annual donations help us to budget for the work we can do if we know how much is coming in annually, however small, and don't forget if the donation is Gift Aided, we can claim back 25p for every pound donated, from the Income Tax-man!

Memorial Candles

Memorial Candles will again be used in All Saints Church this Christmas. The list will be in church from the beginning of November. Tick your name if we wish to continue or add your new requests on the blank pages at the end. The price stays the same at 50p per candle. More information in the December Bugle.

Red candles to light the Christmas Services

As last year, we are making a request for offers of help to buy the 500 red candles we need every year to decorate and light the church. Please contact Barbara Scrivener 636601 or Garrie Griffiths 630409 if you are able to help.
