A chance to blow your trumpet for the villagers of Alport, Middleton and Youlgrave

Village recycling bins to be removed

Youlgrave's familiar recycling bins at the western entrance of the village are to disappear, after Derbyshire Dales District Council (DDDC) decided to close all its 'bring sites' across the district, citing the success of its kerbside recycling scheme and the rising costs of administering the 23 separate locations.

In a public consultation organised by the District Council at the end of last year, Youlgrave residents responded with a 428-name petition coordinated by the Parish Council that called for the recycling bins at Coldwell End to be retained, but instead District Councillors voted last month to close all the sites.

DDDC say that since improved kerbside recycling collections were introduced in 2012, the quantity of material collected from bring sites has reduced by 75%. They also claim that more non-recyclable items are being dumped at the sites, resulting in 43% of the material being contaminated and disposed of at landfill, which is costly for the council and the environment.

One of the reasons given by Youlgrave residents for retaining the village bins was to accommodate excess recycling material, so the Parish Council sought clarification from DDDC on its current guidelines. They responded by saying that additional material will be collected if placed at the side of the household recycling container and provided it is easily identifiable as recycling material (use transparent containers or stacker boxes rather than black bags). Alternatively, extra blue bags can be provided for additional recycling if it's a regular issue (call 01629 761122 or email waste@derbyshiredales.gov.uk).

Please ensure different types of excess recycling is separated. Flatten and where possible remove staples and packaging tape from cardboard, as well as polystyrene and bubble wrap. Boxes and large pieces of cardboard should be flattened and placed next to the container for collection. If you regularly produce lots of excess recycling you should contact the Council at the above number to request an additional recycling bin. "We are always happy to discuss recycling options with our residents," said DDDC.

Report from Middleton and Smerrill Parish Council

Council met on 20 January and began by discussing options for the future of the village hall. It was agreed to ask for a lease renewal at a community hall rent level before considering other options.

Following the pollarding of the trees, Council has arranged to have the algae growth on the play area removed.

District Councillor Graham Elliott informed the meeting of the closure of the DDDC Youlgrave recycling facility and the additional door to door recycling collections (see full article in the Bugle). Council thanked the District Councillor for his personal assistance in making the Telephone Box a Defibrillator Kiosk, which is now registered with the Community Heartbeat Trust and the Ambulance Service – if needed, dial 999 to be given the code.

Council next meets on 16 March at 8.15pm.

Thanks for Crib Service 2015

Many thanks to all those who took part in the Crib Service and especially to Tracie Brown (and April) and Stuart Ide. who took on the role of Mary, Joseph and Jesus just 36 hours before the event! (Three previous offers had to withdraw due to unforeseen circumstances.) I was also overcome with the words of thanks and the gift I was given for having organised the Christmas Eve services for the past 30 years. The gift was organised by Charlotte and Ian, and was a beautifully carved and painted wooden guess what - Nativity Crib Scene! I had it displayed all over Christmas and it will be treasured, and displayed, for the rest of my life. Many, many thanks to all those who contributed to it. Good luck to Charlotte and Ian on keeping the tradition going for the next 30 years!

Elizabeth Lomas (1947-2015)

Elizabeth Lomas lived all her life in the Peak District, including Hartington, Elton and Youlgrave. She attended Youlgrave School and Lady Manners, then undertook teacher training for three years at Elizabeth Gaskell College in Manchester. Her first teaching position was at Mary Howitt Infant School in Heanor, from where she went on to become Deputy Head at Matlock Bath Primary School. Her first Headship was at Hazlewood First School and when appointed she was the youngest Head Teacher in Derbyshire. She was later Head Teacher at Fritchley Primary School and then Inkersall Primary School.

Elizabeth was very active in the local community, including Youlgrave Pantomime, Holywell Players, Peacock Players and Matlock Operatic Society. She was deeply involved in the Church, acting as Secretary for the Parochial Church Council and a member of the Deanery Synod and the Diocesan Board of Education.

After taking early retirement she joined Bakewell Floral Art Club and gained a reputation as a gifted and skilful flower arranger. She won many prizes for her displays, including at Youlgrave Horticultural Show and Bakewell Show, and she founded the Junior Flower Club. Elizabeth was on the Area Executive of the National Association of Flower Arrangement Societies (NAFAS) for eight years, finishing as Secretary, and enjoyed being involved with the organisation and going to NAFAS events around the country.

In her retirement Elizabeth was a dedicated and hard working Foundation Governor at All Saints School, Youlgrave, where she was a pupil six decades earlier. She was a wonderful Grandma to Jasmine, Isaac, Oscar, Astrid, Lucille and Noah, and will be much missed.

Scout and Community Hall consultation with the community and user groups

The Governors of the '1933 Deed', set up by Herbert Leach for the benefit of 1st Youlgrave Scouts, met on 21 January to consider the first steps in the way forward to run the building constructed by the Scouts and community in 1993 that stands on the site of the wooden Scout hut. The current hall goes beyond the scope of the deed and Governors are proposing to modify the scheme to be relevant to its use by the Scouts and all other youth groups in Youlgrave.

As the Governors are the Charity trustees and therefore liable for running the charity, their first step has been to critically assess their own posts and they propose that the current fixed posts be made more flexible. Also, that some Governors should be replaced by bodies with active involvement.

In accordance with the wish of Herbert Leach for the Governors to represent five different bodies with a majority village-based, the following is proposed:

The village organisations be represented by:

- Youlgrave All Saints Primary School (as existing), representative to be the Head Teacher or a School Governor.
- Youlgrave Playschool: a major user and also a children's educator, so could replace the Head of Lady Manners/Vicar, represented by the Playschool Chair or a committee member.
- A Community Governor: elected from within the community by Youlgrave Parish Council, replaces the Chair of Youlgrave Parish Council.
- Uniformed bodies:
- Scout Association (as existing)
- Guide Association: a major user, to replace Vicar/Lady Manners Head.

All Governors to be selected by their own organisation and registered as the five charity trustees.

Youlgrave Scouts is guaranteed a governorship in perpetuity and the right to use the building as their Headquarters.

If another organisation closes then the Governors may select another village youth user group to replace that Governor. If no other youth groups are using the hall then a further Community Governor is to be elected to serve until another village youth group is formed.

No youth group may have more than one Governor representing it.

Governors to appoint a Treasurer and Secretary and anyone else they deem needed to help manage the hall.

The Charity Commission requires the Governors to "resolve the issue of the status of the community hall for the benefit of the charity and the community" and to explain what has been agreed for the Commission to advise the Governors how to move forward.

Governors would like to receive your comments and suggestions on this proposal, with the consultation closing on 29 February 2016.

Please send your written comments to the Secretary to the Governors, Christmas Cottage, Church Street, Youlgrave DE45 1WL or email: youlgovernors@btinternet.com

Reporting a War

Turn on the radio or TV nowadays, or open your newspaper and you are immediately faced with highly visual and descriptive reports of conflicts and casualties. A century ago when our armed forces were literally 'up to their neck' in muck and bullets things were different with newspapers being the most prominent source of news' This is a report from the Derbyshire Advertiser for 25 February 1916:

Weeping shells for the British Tuesday was a busy day for the artillery on the British Front. Poperinghe has been shelled during the night. The British devoted themselves to a bombardment of enemy trenches in the vicinity of Mariacourt, Orvilliers, and the Ypres-Comines road. Hostile artillery shelled the British position west of Ypres, many lachrymotory* shells being used. The British trenches north of Ypres between the Pilkem road and Ypres canal were also bombarded during the day. A mine sprang by the enemy east of Givenchy caused us no casualties and yesterday the British sprang a mine near the Hobenzollen redoubt occupying the lip of the crater.

* For the effects of lachrymotory (gas shells) see John Singer Sergent's painting of 'Gassed' and read Wilfred Owen's poem'Dulce et Decorum est'.

Wonderful Winter at Youlgrave Primary School

After a fabulous Christmas Break, all children have been so excited and engaged in our Winter topic. In Classes 1 and 2, we have focused on the lives of Inuit's and Arctic Explorers. The children have been so interested to find out more about Inuits, their culture, clothing, homes and lifestyles. Lizzie in Class 1 commented on our topic: "I love learning about Inuits and I like how they make igloos."

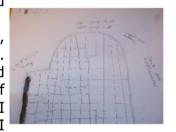

At the beginning of term, we looked at how Inuits build their igloo's as a place to stay when they are out hunting. "I liked looking at pictures of igloos, they are pretty!"

Alice from Class 1 shared. Through their interest and excitement, children decided they wanted to build their very own igloo in school. However, due to the lack of snow, we decided to be creative and design and build an igloo using empty 4-pint milk bottles!

Children worked in teams to design the structure, style and features they wanted the igloo to include. As you can see in the picture, the children worked very hard and put a lot of thought into the design of our igloo building project. Max from Class 2 said: "I liked looking how people build igloos in the Arctic. I can't wait to have fun in the igloo with my friends". The children hope to use the igloo as a place to read, take part in role play as Arctic explorers and during 'Golden Time' with friends.

Both classes worked hard in teams to collect milk bottles, clean the bottles and prepare the base for our igloo. We currently have built 4 layers and are so grateful to all the children's families for collecting the milk bottles.

Tree planting at Hannah Bowman Way Community Orchard

At the end of last November the all. sponsors of trees for the community orchard in Hannah Bowman Way ensure the trees are properly taken successfully planted twenty eight fruit trees. which included different varieties of apples, plums, pears, damsons and one cherry tree.

Before that, on Friday 27 November, all the children from Youlgrave School, together with their teachers helpers, came to plant three trees, one for each class. As the years go by we hope the children remember the day they planted the tree and enjoy eating the fruit.

Other sponsors arrived on Saturday 28th armed with spades to plant their chosen trees. The day was successful with the last trees going in as the predicted heavy rain arrived to soak us

Plans are now being made to care of and so the orchard becomes a place that all villagers will be able to enjoy.

We were very lucky to be awarded a Big Lottery Awards for All Grant to help finance the work. It meant we were able to hire a mini digger to dig all the holes before planting day. Other money will be spent setting up rain water collection and equipment for the regular maintenance.

Anyone wishing to become involved in the orchard please get in touch with Chris Powley

Help wanted for 'The Easter Experience 2016'

For the past two years we have had on display in church six tableaux, expressing the last week of Jesus' life, from Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday. Youlgrave school children visited it the first year (2014) and were so impressed that they asked if they could take part if we did it again. So, in 2015, the 'Easter Experience' (its official title) was repeated and the school children and teachers beautifully displayed three of the scenes. This year they wish to do it again. Are there any artistic, creative people in the village, who would like to help with the other three displays? You don't have to be a churchgoer. Offers of help and further information to Barbara (636601). Please support the School and church by visiting the Easter Experience. Follow the white footprints round the church in order to view everything in the correct order. The displays should be up from approx Tuesday 22 March to Monday 11 April. The church is usually open daily from 9am to 5pm. Happy Easter!

Get online for free @ YVH

Whether you want to get healthy, get connected, get a job or get a bargain, you could be doing it all – and more – by doing it online.

It doesn't matter if you've never even touched a computer before or if you already know a bit - this is your chance to give computers and the internet a go. It's fun, it's free, and it could change how you do your favourite things - and your everyday chores - forever!

Either bring along your own laptop or tablet or use one of ours for each session in the Social Room at the Village Hall. If you are interested in coming along, call the Village Hall on 01629 828 215 to book a place on one of our free sessions on Thursday afternoons during March and April 2016.

A day of Eggstravaganza!

The fun and popular Eggstravaganza for children will again be held in church on Good Friday, March 25th, from 10-11.30 am.

Children, come along and enjoy yourselves again this year! It will probably include egg painting, an Easter egg hunt, Easter card making, bun making, making an Easter garden, games, and more... and maybe feeding a lamb! Of course, there will be refreshments as well.

Enrolment forms will be available at school sometime in March. Children under 5 years old will have to be accompanied by a parent, or responsible adult. Other parents are welcome to stay if they wish. Hope to see you there!

Please support the Bugle in 2016

It's that time again when we invite local businesses, community groups and individuals to renew their back page sponsorship for the year ahead. Rates remain unchanged for another year, at £25 for businesses and £20 for community groups and individuals, although donations of any size are always welcome! Thank you for your support, which enables The Bugle to remain a free community publication.

"Put That Light Out!"

Whilst we tend to think of the 'Black Out' being in force during World War 2 there were lighting restrictions during WW1. In early February 1916 in a Zeppelin raid some 220 bombs were dropped in six counties (including Derbyshire). 54 people were killed and 67 injured. Following this the air raid, and with powers transferred by Regulation 11 of The Realm (Consolidation) Regulations 1914, an Order as to the Lighting in the Borough of Derby was introduced which reduced lighting in stations, shops, hotels and homesteads. Train passengers had to keep the (window) blinds lowered. Car headlights could show no more than 2" across. Street lighting was to be discontinued and the kerbs were to be whitened along with the painting of white circles on lamp-posts.

Church Farm Diary, February 2016

I hope everyone has coped with the wet weather. About 15 years ago we had a problem with the sheep in the floods. In the field at the bottom of Raper Lane the river broke its bank and the sheep were stranded on the river bank. Michael, Dakin, Luther and Elizabeth and I went down with the tractor and trailer and quad hoping to load the sheep up and bring them back to higher ground. When I got off the tractor I went up my waist in cold water, because when the field flooded it looks flat and I had forgotten that there was a ditch just before the river bank! We had decided to load the sheep up, but not realising that sheep don't do as they are told, they would have either gone into the river on their left or turned and gone into the flooded field. Luckily they turned and started to swim across the field! It was quite a sight to see all the sheep swimming and all of us wet though. Michael had a hole in his wellingtons, not that it mattered as we could have gone in sandals and would have still have been as wet.

I feel very sorry for all the people that have been affected by the floods, to have all that water coming into your house must be terrible – we are lucky to live on a hill. In the past I have seen it very bad at the bottom of Bradford, where the houses were affected.

Dakin's cattle have had the T.B. test and have come through clear. This is always a worry as it is very restricting if you fail.

The milk price is still on the floor and the world situation does not help. I read in the Farmers Guardian that New Zealand send 300,00 litres of dried milk power over to China. New Zealand have a lot of very big milk herds.

The cows have started calving so this is bringing the milk production into a good cycle, with some cows drying off and some in full milk.

RECIPE OF THE MONTH

Brown Sugar and Hazelnut Shortbread

This shortbread is one of my favourite cakes to eat and this recipe is just a little different.

Ingredients

190g soft butter 120g soft light brown sugar A few drops of vanilla extract 50g chopped hazelnuts 280g plain flour 1 egg yolk

Method

Put the butter and sugar in a bowl and beat together.
Add the hazelnuts and vanilla, flour and egg yolk and combine altogether.
Tip the mixture into a greased sandwich tin and squish it all out into a flat layer.

Put it into the freezer for 15 mins to firm up or fridge for 30 mins.

Bake in oven for about 25 mins on gas 4 or 350 F. The shortbread should be firm and light golden in colour. Dust with caster sugar and remove from tin when cool, then cut into wedges.

A Youlgrave history walk, part 8: Down Bradford

By retired architect Peter Knowles

Walking down Bradford from Church Corner is a pleasant visual experience, as the countryside distant comes into view over the rooftops at first. then opens out to the west opposite Mount Pleasant and then to the east near Braemar House, Bradford Road winds its way down to Bradford the River ('broad ford' the first crossing), bridged over in the 18th century. leading to Mawstone 1. Mine, Mawstone Farm, Hopping Farm and over the hills and faraway to Gratton. Elton and other exotic distant places.

Mawstone Lane starts on the west side of the bridge, although Google Maps shows it mistakenly starting at the top junction with Stoneyside. An ancient packhorse trade route from the south crossed the river where Braemar Bridge is now located, and headed up to the Church via Bradford Rd. Stoneyside is the steeper and straighter route down to the river by the clapper footbridge. The two roads diverge at what is now Owl Cottage, a barn conversion. The space between Bradford Road and Stoneyside was perhaps too narrow to farm and was used for small cottages and sheds, forming a small settlement called Bradford some 200m (an eighth of a mile) below the main village.

Buildings before 1900

One of the oldest houses is Top House (on the right, just below where the temporary doctor's surgery used to be) and is dated 1725, although it's not a Listed Building. Originally it had a thatched roof, as did Ivy Cottage further down the road on the left; as evidence of this note the original stone 'flashings' on the neighbouring gable wall to protect the end of the thatch – these are now well above the thinner tiled roof which replaced it.

There are four Listed Buildings of Architectural or Historic Interest down Bradford, all Grade II category and dating from the 18th century: 1. Ivy Cottage, 2. Woodside View (both addresses are wrongly given on the official list as Mawstone Lane, now called Bradford Road), 3. the clapper footbridge, and 4. the road bridge over the river (see photos).

Comparing the two maps shown in 1799, the narrow 'island' between Stoneyside and what is now Bradford Road was built up chiefly on the East side, presumably with lead-miners' and farmworkers' cottages and sheds. By 1900 the west side had become built up. The 'island' is now choc-a-bloc with a high-density layout crossed by alleyways. It is an attractive old settlement of about 35 attractive 2-storey dwellings. Very few have house numbers and sometimes new owners change the names so it's difficult to find them.

Buildings after 1900

The allotments east of Bradford Road have been largely taken over by Brassington Close in the 1960s (low-density layout of bungalows) and Mount Pleasant (medium density layout) - six pairs of semis, four in the 1930s, plus two at the bottom in the 1960s. The semis are raised well above road level and dominate the view. There is rear access for vehicles. The only allotments which remain down Bradford are the Church allotments west of Stoneyside, mainly domestic now except for Dougie Oldfield's large vegetable patch.

The Rural District Council built 12 pairs of semi-detached houses and a terrace four houses on allotments at Mawstone Lane, a total of 28 dwellings. in the 1930s. The exposed site was not ideal, it was outside the village on the wrong side of the river, but I assume it was cheap land to build on. The houses are laid around a central street. The semis are prominent from the Dale on this raised site. It's a long walk to Church corner up a steep hill. At that time, very few of the residents would have had a car, so they were isolated from the village school, pubs, churches, the Co-op department store and shops, apart from a general grocery shop down Bradford. This was run by Nona Webster in the 30s and 40s. She lived in a cottage adjoining Woodside View and this branch of the road was locally known as 'Nona's-side'. It was later run by John Stevenson. It closed a few years ago and was rebuilt as an annexe to Woodside View. Cars make it much easier for the present residents to reach village amenities and to go further afield.

The Dale was a good place for children to play (see Lillian Clark's testimony in 'A River in Time,' the excellent book on the Bradford by Christine Gregory, Grafika Ltd 2013). Five council houses were built in a tight group next to Riverside View in the 1980s.

Old roadside limestone walls contribute to the village character, but gaps are appearing in them to allow offstreet parking. It would be a pity if many walls disappeared for this reason or for lack of maintenance, for they are part of the historic fabric. As elsewhere in Youlgrave, on-street parking is a modern problem, especially down Bradford where parked cars make it difficult for increasingly large touring caravans, farm vehicles, etc, to get through. Several holiday cottages are located in this picturesque area. Outsiders can buy them, the free housing market applies. However. several of these cottages are small and unsuitable for local families with children, hence the recent need to build local need houses on Conksbury Lane (Hannah Bowman Way) for the village as a whole.

I like the houses that face south alongside the road - this is a traditional orientation affording maximum heat from the sun, an eco-friendly arrangement nowadays, especially when coupled with a north side which has few or no windows. They usually have a blank gable-end close to the street which helps to punctuate the townscape, in contrast to a line of buildings parallel to the road. Examples of this down Bradford are Woodside View, Thorneycroft House (gable-ends to both streets), Braemar House, Daisy Bank, Riverside terrace and Dale Cottage terrace (no. 1 has a neat modern extension touching Bradford Road at an angle).

My thanks to Lillian Clark, Dougie Oldfield and Stan Roper for their help.

Youlgrave Wildlife Notes: December 2015 & January 2016

Even in the middle of winter it is usually possible to find some wild flowers in bloom. My pre-writing walk on 25 January found seven species, including white deadnettle and lesser celandine. though none were numerous and they were not just isolated plants. In spite of the very mild weather I am relieved to say that we do not seem to have large quantities of daffodils and other plants that have seen blooming elsewhere. While flowers have been scarce there has been a very good bird count throughout the winter. Back in early December there were lots of redwings and fieldfares around New Road and a blackcap was reported down Conksbury Lane feeding on tiny grapes on an ornamental vine. These warblers used to be only summer visitors but, along with chiffchaffs.

increasingly over-

winter. The winter thrushes seemed fairly scarce in the village: later on, though, I did see some large flocks higher up. Presumably there was plenty of food for them. However both redwings and fieldfare descended on the village again at the bottom of Moor Lane on 21 January making the most of windfall apples.

Grev waatail

Above the village gulls, particularly lesser black backs, have been feeding in large numbers. Along the river all of our key species - kingfisher, dabchick, grey wagtail and dipper – have been seen consistently. My best view of the kingfisher was on 14 January when I watched it fishing from the swing fence above Holywell Lane. It dived and swam around for a few seconds, rather like a dipper, before it returned to its perch. There have been two dabchicks, mainly on the pool above the third dam, but not keeping together. I did see one of them struggle for some time with a fish before it managed to swallow it. Dippers seem to be in short supply at the moment, but earlier on have been singing and two were seen chasing each other. A grev wagtail has been around most of the time. Tufted ducks have been resident this winter. My best count was four pairs on 13 January, but numbers have varied.

Small numbers of mistle thrushes have been above Braemar Lane and a song thrush was singing at the bottom of Holywell Lane on 9 January.

Another hint of spring was a woodpecker drumming in the Dale on 11 January. Garden birds are doing well. with lots of finches and tits. including lona tailed tits and the occasional greater spotted woodpecker. Feeders provide a useful food source and give a lot of pleasure, but there have been cases of Trichomonosis. particularly in greenfinches. The birds look fluffed up and poorly. Feeders and bird baths should be cleaned regularly and if you do see affected birds in your garden the advice from the RSPB is to stop feeding for three weeks.

My thanks for reports from Joy, Simon, Ruth and Mick and the New Road Birders.

Report from Youlgrave Parish Council

Council met on 19 January and discussed issues concerning parking at Fountain Square, the slow response to crucial street light repairs and the removal of the recycling facility (see the full article in this issue of the Bugle for more information about increased doorstep collections). Council supported Long Rake in its redevelopment planning application and thanked District Councillor Graham Elliott who has provided a grant to install a bench at the west side of the Conduit Head ('Fountain'). It welcomed the repairs to the footpath at Alport and continues to liaise with the Peak Park Ranger to provide additional improvements to local public footpaths this year.

A report was received that during the recent snow grit bin salt was used inappropriately. Please remember that the grit in our bins is for the footpaths and highways only. Your Parish Council sells grit to parishioners at a reduced rate via Youlgrave Garage for private drives and paths. The next meeting is on 23 February at 7.15pm in the Village Hall Committee Room.

February full to the brim

February will be brimming over... as our W.I. has literally filled up this year, and our many new members are warmly welcomed to our fold! Our December party was a great event, with music, laughter, food, wine and dancing to suit everyone. The Chatsworth Christmas visit was very popular, with Toad grinning down at twenty five happy ladies, and at the Group Carol Service, Lucy read a unique version of 'The night before Christmas'.

January began well with our new members swelling the numbers to capacity. The speakers, Terry and Carol, from Matlock First Responders, not only demonstrated and explained the procedure when using the defibrillator, but advised us on their kev role as volunteers when attending a patient, and acting as backup for the Paramedics. We were shown the secrets of the 'goody bag' kept by all responders, and understood the different levels of Response, and techniques applied in emergency situations such as cardiac arrest and strokes. A vital and very clearly presented talk to start off this jam-packed year.

Our trip to Showboat, with friends and family, was as fantastic as last year's theatre outing, and the first 2016 Supper Club kept us occupied with box-making and a huge display of amazing crafts on offer from Lynne Nolan, who runs workshops in the village. As usual, Jean's pies and peas were superb!

Many outings and plans are afoot this year, including tea parties, our area

Members, family and friends outside the Crucible after a wonderful show

Group Meeting, a Sardinian evening, yoga, our village Pantomime, and a lovely spring lunch at the Riverside Hotel

February's meeting is on Tuesday 9th, at 7.30pm at the Village Hall, when Jill Roberts will be speaking to us about Life in the Diplomatic Service. The Craft Group has settled into the Committee Room, and will meet on February 1st and 15th at 2pm. Book Group is still thriving, and our monthly Competition is enjoying a revival. February Supper Club will be a special supper on the 25th at The Red Lion, Birchover.

Many thanks to all of our keen members and 'behind the scenes' teams, past and present, without whom Youlgrave W.I. would not be the success that it is today.

"A Phil Beer solo gig is far more than a folk concert. As well as a raft of fantastic anecdotes, he dropped in on a range of American greats: Hoyt Axton, Billy Joel, Bruce Springsteen, Steve Earl and blues legends, Reverend Gary Davis and Blind Willie Dixon" - Nottingham Post last year
